REPATRIATION FLIGHT
PARIS TO HO CHI MINH CITY
21 NOVEMBER 2020

AIR FRANCE VIETNAM

*Information accurate as at 05 November 2020

All passengers are personally responsible to arrange and be in possession of the required health and travel documentation such as passport, visas, health certifications (negative RT-PCR test) any relevant documents for entry into Vietnam.
Upon reception of all the required documents by the authorities of Vietnam according to the deadlines, Air France will submit a list of passengers (with all the required documents) and will apply for the landing permit to CAAV (Civil Aviation of Vietnam).
After 5 working days, CAAV will deliver the landing permit with an approved passenger list. If the CDG-SGN repatriation flight is not approved or/and your submission is not approved, the ticket will be refunded (refund fees might be applicable).
Passengers allow Air France to take and retain copies of passport or other documentation. Air France reserves the right to refuse carriage if passengers have not complied with these requirements, or if the travel documents do not appear in order.
Air France will take all necessary measures to operate the CDG-SGN repatriation flight. In the event the CDG-SGN repatriation flight is delayed or cancelled, Air France shall take adequate steps to support passengers but has no liability with respect thereto.
The General Conditions of Carriage of Air France applies to this CDG-SGN repatriation flight.
